Time	Session Description	Notes	Next Steps
8 am	Welcome & Introductions	9 people in person, 18 on line for a total attendance of 27	Several comments on who we can reach out to and invite to the table!
	Highlights and Progress: 1. Core Design team Established (Bonnie Hopkins, August Ahlm, Sue Hodgman, Helen Tso, Cheri Floyd, Barb Tedrow, Kathy Price)	The core team will next meet on Wed April 13, 11:30-1 at The Chilli Pod, anyone welcome to join us.
	2. PR – Articles, FB, Google Drive, speaking to groups	Google Drive link: https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1YOApDaZi_jq-UBPSJUtznpF90vScj7fA?usp=sharing
	3. Survey Update	Community Action Agency of Southern New Mexico is coordinating a statewide needs assessment, and this would cover all counties. They are hoping to use the 100% NM survey as part of that assessment, and would focus on the counties that haven't yet done their survey. I will hopefully have more details on this soon.	David Bowman noted: Once we gather the data we need to look closely to see if there are large groups "missing". The REC can also help distribute any surveys
	Resource Guide	Four Corners Economic Development has a resource guide too. From Amanda Evans to Everyone: San Juan County Partnership is going to be working on an online version of our resource guide and expanding it to be easy to use Take a look at a good interactive one: https://www.100nm.org/sanmiguel/	We do have a pdf version of resources online at https://www.100nm.org/sanjuan/wp-content/uploads/sites/15/2022/01/BehavioralHealthResourceGuide-San-Juan.pdf
	4. Sector Highlights (1-2 min)	In the Google Drive is a current list of people interested in various sectors. Feel free to go there and add your name and email.	Please download the sections you are interested in from the book

		We DO NOT want to duplicate services of any existing colations, but rather support them in their endeavors and build more systemic coverage.	100% Community available here: https://www.annaageeight.org/100-percent-book/
	Housing	From Bonnie Hopkins to Everyone: The Housing Authority is part of San Juan County: https://www.sjcounty.net/government/housing-authority Deacon shared need for more shelterspace due to our high homeless rate. United Way is also working in this area
	Transportation	Lou Go's / Capacity Builders in currently running the Red Apple Transit through a grant
	Medical and Dental Health	San Juan College has a fee/low cost Dental Clinic, does anyone know someone from that program? https://www.sanjuacollege.edu/dentalclinic/ We want to make sure our sectors cover the wide range of needs in the county...ie the low wage workers, consultants, etc.	From Jeanne Winchell to Everyone: I can reach out to Sherry Paxson, Dean of Health Sciences for Dental. Or Dr. Julius Manz, he is the Director of Dental. From Jeanne Winchell to Everyone: Several counties have a "Community Health Worker" that has a Paramedic and Assistant that travel around in communities to follow up on those that leave the hospital. I would recommend we reach out to Vince Moffett with Basin Home Health, he is pretty connected.
	Food Security	Bonnie volunteered to lead this team and anyone interested in sub group meeting please get with her as a lot is going on!
	Behavioral Health	The SJC Mental Health Task force will be the lead group for this sector, they meet the first Thursday of each month at 9 am.	Kathy will attend this group's next mtg.
	Early Childhood	The EC Coalition will serve as the lead group for this sector. A new coordinator will start April 1. Congrats to SJC for getting a
